

Electro mechanical Engineer

Description

A panel wirer / Electrical fitter is required in the Production Department to manufacture a range of instruments. The ideal candidate will be qualified or practically experienced in electrical assembly including understanding electrical diagrams and performing cable making, soldering, crimping and terminal installation to drawings.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities will include:

- Assembly of electrical and electronic systems.
- Control cabinet assembly
- Terminal installation
- Soldering multi-pin connections
- Soldering surface mount devices
- Refurbishment and upgrade of existing products returned to factory
- Electrical fault finding
- Following technical drawings

Qualifications

You should have or be:

- Academic qualification or practical experience in electrical assembly
- Significant previous assembly experience within a workshop manufacturing environment
- Excellent soldering skills including complex high-density connectors and surface mount devices
- Meticulous assembling skills
- Able to read and understand electrical drawings including wiring diagrams and PCB schematics
- Strong time management and be able to work unsupervised to defined deadlines
- Good communicator and team player

Hiring organization

Sercon Limited

Employment Type

Full-time

Job Location

Cheshire

Base Salary

£ Experience dependent

Date posted

18/08/2022